

NEW ZEALAND UNIVERSITIES GRADUATES' ASSOCIATION
PATRON: H.E. THE NEW ZEALAND HIGH COMMISSIONER

NZ UNIVERSITIES GRADUATES' ASSOCIATION BUFFET SUPPER

In the Penthouse Suite, New Zealand House, Haymarket, London SW1Y 4TQ

On Friday, 12 March at 7:00 p.m.

Featuring our speaker: Murray Pickering

“Reminisces of a kiwi Commercial Lawyer - New Zealand and UK”

In his talk Murray will reflect on some of the similarities and some of the differences between the life of a commercial lawyer in New Zealand and in England. He will reminisce about aspects of the legal education and training he received in both countries and about some of his more memorable experiences and some of the more memorable people he has encountered.

The talk will follow an informal supper. Admittance is at a charge of £18 per person. If paid in advance a discount of £3 (i.e. price £15 each) will apply. Cash bar. Please arrive between 6:30 pm and 7:00 pm. For security reasons the guest list will be checked on the ground floor. Admission will not be possible after 7:15 pm. All very welcome to attend, member of NZUGA or not, but advance booking is required as numbers are limited.

Your place must be reserved in advance. Please visit our web site for booking form or contact: Karyn Newman, Co-Secretary / Treasurer NZUGA. Tel: 020 7292 7507 during office hours, or Fax 020 7439 2077. Paper tickets will not be issued, but names of those attending will be checked prior to admission. Booking form below should be sent with your payment for receipt by 5 March 2010.

MURRAY PICKERING

Murray Pickering Q.C. is a graduate of the University of New Zealand (M.A., Canterbury University College and LL.B., Victoria University of Wellington), and the University of London (LL.M., London School of Economics). He came to England on a Gordon Watson scholarship in 1960 and was called to the Bar, by the Inner Temple, in 1963 before returning to New Zealand for two years to practice as a barrister and solicitor with Bell Gully & Co in Wellington. He returned to England to join the Law Department at L.S.E. as a lecturer in 1966. In 1969 he joined a set of Chambers specializing in commercial law and until 1977 he combined practice as a barrister with law teaching. In full-time practice from then he took silk in 1986 and was elected as a Bencher of the Inner Temple in 1992. From 1997 to 1992 he was an elected member of the Bar Council. He retired from practice at the end of 2008 but the retirement lasted only until November 2009.

NZUGA

The New Zealand University Graduates' Association holds 3 suppers annually, where a speaker is invited to talk on a field of interest to New Zealanders. The NZUGA seeks to bring New Zealand graduates and friends in the UK together in an arena of mutual interest in socialising, discussion and learning. See www.nzuga.co.uk for further details, and a booking form.
